SUBJECT.

Application for amendment of a Succession Certificate under sec 206 C.P.C.

The Petr prays for ~~the~~ amendment of the Certificate produced ^{by him} with his petition
by the substitution of 'N.C. Nanjappa'
for 'Channamugavalamma' in the preamble

'In the matter of the estate of Channamugavalamma'. If the insertion of the name 'Channamugavalamma' is a mistake,
it does not seem to be an arithmetical
or clerical error for it to be amended

* Flag A. 04/10/07
under sec 206 C.P.C. In his petition for the Certificate the Petr has ~~stated~~ at para 7 that he is entitled to the insurance amount due to the estate of Channamugavalamma and the Court Proceedings and the order for the issue of the Certificate also show that

that the Petri's application was understood to relate to the estate of Channamuga-valamma and not of N.C. Nanjappa.

Please see security bond also (preamble).

However as the Petri has not ^{specifically} stated in his prayer for the certificate, probably being in doubt, that the certificate sought for was in respect of the estate of Channamugavalamma, perhaps he may have a remedy to apply for a review.

File No. 302/04

British Resident in Mysore,

In re: petition No. of 1907.

302/04 Nanjundappa ——— petitioner

Under Sections 206 & 647 of the Civil procedure Code and 10 of the Succession Certificate Act VII of 1899, the petitioner above named respectfully begs to state as follows: —.

1. From the facts set out in the application presented by the petitioner to this Honorable Court in re: Case No. 302 of 1904, it will be seen that the petitioner became entitled to the assets of the deceased — Nanjappa through petitioner's deceased wife Channammugavalamma, after her death.

sl- at flay A in R.O. file 302 placed 1904
below.

2. One of the debts due to the estate of her deceased father

N.C. Nanjappa and to which she became entitled is a sum of ~~Rs~~ 2000-0-0 due by the London and Lancashire Assurance Company as per policy No 42325.

3. Consequently the petitioner became entitled to this sum of ^{the said} money after the death of his wife the said Channammuguvallamma and he applied for and obtained the Certificate herewith attached from this Honorable Court enabling him to collect the said sum of ~~Rs~~ 2000/- as part of the estate of the said N. C. Nanjappa but in the Certificate it is described as the estate of Channammuguvallamma.

4. The Certificate had been forwarded by the petitioner to the agents at Bombay of the London and Lancashire Assurance Co, with a letter requesting them to pay the sum of ~~Rs~~ 2000/- due on the said policy No 42325.

5. The Company do not seem to be satisfied with the Certificate in its present form as it reads, ^{as} though it is granted in respect of the estate of Channamuguvallamma, whereas the policy belongs to the estate of her deceased father Nanjappa. The Company's letter is herewith filed for information.

- b. The objection of the Company is of a very technical character, but still as they require that the Certificate granted to the petitioner by this Honorable Court should be amended by substituting the words "Nanjappa's Estate" for "Channamuguvallamma's Estate" the petitioner most respectfully prays that this Honorable Court may be pleased to direct that the said amendment ~~amendment~~ ^{to} may be kindly made namely, the insertion of the words — "N. C. Nanjappa deceased" in lieu of words — "Channamuguvallamma late of Sivanasapur — Hoskote Taluk."
